Re: In re Cathode Ray Tubes (CRT) Antitrust Litigation, MDL 1917
Time and Cost Reporting

Dear Counsel:

As you are aware, this firm has been appointed as Interim Lead Counsel for the indirect purchaser plaintiffs in this multidistrict litigation.

Among other things, our duties as Lead Counsel require us to collect reports of contemporaneously-prepared attorney and paralegal time and costs records from each plaintiff firm.

Each firm will be responsible for transmitting its attorney and paralegal time and costs records on a quarterly basis as follows:

1. Time and costs reports are to be submitted electronically to Stephen J. Pelleriti, CPA at sjpcpa@earthlink.net, by the 15th of the month following the end of the previous quarter. For example, for the July-September quarter, time and cost reports will be due on October 15th.
2. Each firm's time report should include a summary of that firm's lodestar in Microsoft Excel spreadsheet format identifying the timekeeper, the timekeeper's position, their billing rate and their total hours for that quarter. A template is provided herewith.
3. Each firm's time report should also include copies of each individual attorney and paralegal's daily time entries. These entries should include the date, a detailed description of the specific work performed, the time spent, and the applicable rate. These entries may be in whatever format you use to record your time. We have no preference as to the format used for these reports.

4. Cost and expenses for computer-assisted legal research, copying and printing, meals and travel, fax, telephone delivery and other charges should be recorded using actual cost figures. A template for cost reporting is provided herewith.
5. Litigation support costs for expert fees, special computer installations, courtroom exhibits, and the like require clearance from Interim Lead Counsel before they are incurred.

We will begin collecting each firm's quarterly time reports following the end of the current April-June quarter. This first report should include your firm's time from inception of this case through June 30, 2008. Please submit these records in accordance with the above protocol via e-mail to Stephen Pelleriti, CPA at sjpcpa@earthlink.net by no later than July 15, 2008.

We will be making work assignments to those firms that have submitted their time and expenses in compliance with this letter.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation in this matter. We look forward to working with you.

Very truly yours,

Lauren C. Russell

To: CRT Antitrust Litigation Time and Expense Administrator:

On March 21, 2015, Francis O. Scarpulla withdrew from Zelle Hofmann to resume his previous practice at the Law Offices of Francis O. Scarpulla (LOFOS). Pursuant to agreement, Zelle Hofmann has assigned to LOFOS 50% of Fran Scarpulla's personal lodestar in this case generated while Fran was a partner with Zelle Hofmann from case inception to March 21, 2015. Zelle Hofmann's expense reports are not affected by the assignment. Zelle Hofmann and LOFOS submit the attached time and lodestar spreadsheets to reflect this assignment. In general, the assignment results in the following adjustments:

- Total Zelle lodestar through March 31, 2015 (before LOFOS assignment) = $9,652,495.00 (16,759.00 hours)
- New total Zelle lodestar through March 31, 2015 (after LOFOS assignment) = $9,440,206.25 (16,753.15 hours)
- Total LOFOS lodestar through March 31, 2015 = $212,288.75 (185.85 hours)

Going forward, Zelle Hofmann and LOFOS will submit separate time and expense reports in this matter. Please let us know if you have any questions.

I have asked the accounting firm for copies of all reported time in this case, but have not received the courtesy of a reply. Please ask that firm to send me the time and expense reports from inception to date so that I can inspect them for purposes of filing any appropriate statement with the Court (or Special Master if one is appointed). This is the last time I am going to ask for this information; if it is not forth coming I will file an appropriate motion with the Court.

I would also like to receive the common fund accounting, including all contributions by firm and all payments, as well as copies of all bank statements.

Thank you.

Given the Court's recent order, for the fourth time, I hereby request that you send me the time-and-expense reports submitted by all IPP counsel, including all contemporaneously-maintained time sheets. I know that certain counsel reported on a regular basis their time and expenses to an accounting firm you engaged to gather and report time-and-expenses by firm. I want that information too. I also want all bank statements showing the deposits from any source, including assessment payments, as well as payments by the DAPs for access to our database. I also want all accounting of payments from all accounts into which such funds were deposited. You have until Monday, November 15th, at 12 noon to agree to this request, because time is of the essence if we are to complete our analysis of not only the settlement issues we have raised, but also the fee issues currently before the Special Master.

Thank you.

Case No. 3:07-cv-5944 JST

Dear Mario:

Please reference Special Master Quinn's recent order requiring you to produce contemporaneously-maintained time records for the so-called Late-Added-Three firms, as well as for all billers under your firm's name for the years 2014 and 2015 through the date of an agreement in principle for the settlement of the final claims of the IPP Class.

We know that all time records were sent electronically to the accounting firm you hired, identified only as sipcpa@earthlink.com, and therefore we assume these time reports will be delivered in electronic form as Special Master Quinn has required. In order to make these electronic files useable, please provide the following: file type to be produced (e.g., .XLS spreadsheets), computer program required to read the files (e.g., Microsoft Excel), and whether the files are word-searchable.

Thank you for your prompt response.

Sincerely,
